F-1 Visa or J-1 Visa Selection Form

Please review this information to determine which visa best fits your situation and goals. Please submit this Visa Selection Form, along with your requested status, with your Certificate of Finance.

F-1 Status (Form I-20)

Study

- Student must be admitted to a program of study leading to a specific educational objective.
- Student must show sufficient evidence of financial support.
- Student must acquire health insurance of student's choice

Health Insurance

- Student is required to obtain Health Insurance for self and dependents per university policy.

Employment

- On-campus employment is permitted without special authorization. A student can work up to 20 hours a week while school is in session and full time during breaks and holidays.
- Off campus employment is prohibited per U.S. law.
- There are a few exceptions when off campus employment is permitted such as situations in which a student is meeting a requirement of their degree program such as an internship.
- Off-campus employment after graduation is permitted (up to 12 months) with authorization from USCIS.

Dependents

- Employment: Per U.S. law, F-2 dependents are not permitted to work on or off campus.
- F-2 spouses may enroll in classes on a part time basis. To enroll full time, a spouse would need to change to F-1 status.
- F-2 dependent children may attend grades K-12 full-time.

J-1 Status (Form DS-2019)

Study

- Student's study must lead to a specific educational objective, but is not required to complete a program of study.
- Student must have a minimum of 30% of total funding coming from an institutional or organizational source. Personal and family funds do not qualify as institutional support or university funding.
- Individuals in J-status may be subject to 212(e), the 2-year home residency requirement. If subject, an individual would be required to spend 2 years in his or her home country before becoming eligible to return to the U.S. in H-1B, L, K, or Permanent Residency status

Health Insurance

- Student must have insurance that has a minimum of $100,000 in coverage, a maximum deductible of $500, repatriation of remains at $25,000, and medical evacuation of $50,000. This is required by the U.S. government for all J-1 and J-2s (dependents)

Employment

- On-campus employment is permitted with International Student & Scholar authorization. A student can work up to 20 hours a week while school is in session and full time during breaks and holidays.
- Academic Training, either before and after graduation, with approval of faculty, may be authorized by the International Student & Scholar Office for up to 18 months or for the length of your program, whichever is shorter. Doctoral students may be eligible an additional 18 months of academic training, following their graduation.

Dependents

- Employment: J-2 dependents may apply for work authorization after they arrive in the U.S. Authorization involves an application to the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service. Approval can take up to 3 months and there is a filing fee of $410.
- Study: J-2 dependents may attend school full or part time without special authorization.
